INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS the National Wages Consultative Council ("Council") established under section 3 of the National Wages Consultative Council 2011 (Act 732) in exercising the powers provided under section 4(2) of Act 732, hereby decided that apart from the matters contained in the Minimum Wages Order 2012 [P.U. (A) 214] ("Order"), the method of implementing the Order are as follows:

1. DAILY MINIMUM WAGE OF EMPLOYEES

In accordance with the objective of implementing Minimum Wages Order 2012, full-time employees shall obtain the amount of the average salary of not less than RM900 (Peninsular Malaysia) or RM800 (Sabah, Sarawak and the Federal Territory of Labuan) per month. Full-time employee who is paid on a daily basis and has attended work on normal working days as fixed and fulfill the normal working hours as agreed in the contract of service regardless of the number of hours worked per day shall be paid the daily minimum wages based on the calculation formula as follows:

$$\text{Daily Wages Rate} = \frac{\text{Monthly Minimum Wages Rate} \times 12 \text{ months}}{52 \text{ weeks} \times \text{Number of days worked in a week}}$$

(i) For Peninsular Malaysia, the daily minimum wage rates are as follows:

Number of days worked in a week	Daily Wages Rate	Average Monthly Salary
6	RM34.62	RM34.62 x 26 day = RM900.12 ≈ RM900
5	RM41.54	RM41.54 x 21.67 day = RM900.17 ≈ RM900
4	RM51.92	RM51.92 x 17.33 day = RM899.77 ≈ RM900

Note: The above calculations are based on the maximum number of working hours of 48 hours a week.

- (ii) For Sabah, Sarawak and the Federal Territory of Labuan, the daily minimum wages rates are as follows:

Number of days worked in a week	Daily Wages Rate	Average Monthly Salary
6	RM30.77	RM30.77 x 26 day = RM800.02 ≈ RM800
5	RM36.92	RM36.92 x 21.67 day = RM800.06 ≈ RM800
4	RM46.15	RM46.15 x 17.33 day = RM799.78 ≈ RM800

Note: The above calculations are based on the maximum number of working hours of 48 hours a week.

2. MINIMUM WAGES FOR EMPLOYEES WHO ARE PAID BY PIECE-RATED, TONNAGE, TRIP OR COMMISSIONS

For employees who have no basic salary but their wages are paid by piece-rated, tonnage, trip or commission, the method of implementation of the minimum wages are as follows:

- (i) If the wages paid is in excess of the minimum wages, then the basic wages of RM900 in Peninsular Malaysia or RM800 in Sabah, Sarawak and Federal Territory of Labuan is deemed to have been complied with;
- (ii) If the wages paid is RM900 in Peninsular Malaysia or RM800 in Sabah, Sarawak and Federal Territory of Labuan, the basic wages of RM900 or RM800 is deemed to have been complied with; and
- (iii) If the wages paid is less than RM900 in Peninsular Malaysia or RM800 in Sabah, Sarawak and Federal Territory of Labuan, the employer shall add whatever that are less to meet the basic wages of RM900 or RM800.

The above method do not limit the rights of employer/employee from paying/receiving wages which is higher in accordance with the contract of service.

3. METHOD OF RESTRUCTURING OF WAGES

Subject to negotiations between the employer and employee, the method of restructuring of wages is guided on the following bases:

- (i) the restructuring process is done ONCE ONLY that is BEFORE the commencement date of this Order and NOT a process that continues after the effective date of the Order;
- (ii) the restructuring of wages only involve cash payments as in the definition of "wages" under section 2 of the Employment Act 1955, Sabah Labour Ordinance [Chapter 67] or the Sarawak Labour Ordinance [Chapter 76] only;
- (iii) any payments that are excluded from the definition of "wages" under section 2 of Employment Act 1955, Sabah Labour Ordinance [Chapter 67] or the Sarawak Labour Ordinance [Chapter 76] cannot be absorbed as minimum wages in the restructuring of wages. Payments that are not wages are as follows:
 - (a) the value of accommodation or the supply of any food, fuel, light or water or medical attendance, or of any approved amenity or approved service;
 - (b) any contributions paid by employers on his own account to any pension fund, provident fund, superannuation scheme, retrenchment, termination, lay-off or retirement scheme, thrift scheme, or any other fund or scheme established for the benefit or welfare of the employee;
 - (c) any traveling allowance or the value of any travel concession;
 - (d) any sum payable to the employee to defray special expenses entailed on him by the nature of his employment;
 - (e) any gratuity payable on discharge or retirement; or
 - (f) any annual bonus or any part of any annual bonus.

- (iv) Allowances paid specifically based on the nature of work i.e heat allowance, dust allowance, noise allowance, standing allowance and other similar allowances given to the particular employee are not appropriate to be restructured;
- (iv) for the hotel sector in which the collection of service charges is implemented, the employer may convert all or part of the collected service charges as part of minimum wages;
- (v) for the plantation sector in which Special Gratuitous Payment of RM200 is implemented, the employer may convert all or part of the payment as part of the minimum wages. Any terms and conditions relating to entitlement to such payment shall be void. However, if there is a balance of payment, terms and conditions relating to eligibility to receive the remaining payments shall continue to apply;
- (vi) for the security sector where safety incentives paid to employees as provided in Wages Council Order (Wages Regulations Order) (Statutory Minimum Remuneration of Private Security Guards in the Peninsular Malaysia) Order 2011 and Wages Council (Wages Regulations Order) (Statutory minimum remuneration of Private Security Guards in Sabah and Sarawak) in 2011, it may be structured as a minimum wage;
- (vii) housing allowance is allowed to be restructured as the minimum wages, provided that the allowance is not a replacement for the facilities provided by the employer, but a cash payment provided by the employer based the contract of service; and
- (ix) the restructuring process should not reduce the total wages received prior to restructuring.

Gaji semasa	Gaji selepas Perintah
RM457.35 (gaji pokok) RM700 (elaun)	RM457.35 + (RM800-RM 457.35) = RM800 (gaji minimum) RM700 – (RM800-RM457.35) = RM357.35 (elaun)
Jumlah=RM1157.35	Jumlah= RM 1157.35
